

Animals, Animals Scavenger Hunt

Children's Farms

Match the animal with its characteristic:
Circle the mammals and underline the birds:

water buffalo	short hair	camel	horns
yak	long hair	watusi	hump
duck	hair	cow	milk
pig	feathers	sheep	wool

Amphibian and Reptile Building

Find these animals and circle their group:

Frogs	amphibians	reptiles
Snakes	amphibians	reptiles
Tortoises	amphibians	reptiles
Lizards	amphibians	reptiles
Salamanders	amphibians	reptiles
Crocodiles	amphibians	reptiles
Toads	amphibians	reptiles

Jungle

Find and check off:

_____ a bird that swims

_____ a small mammal with golden fur

_____ a fish with a sucker mouth

_____ a mammal with wings

_____ a reptile with long claws

_____ a large, mostly red bird

North America

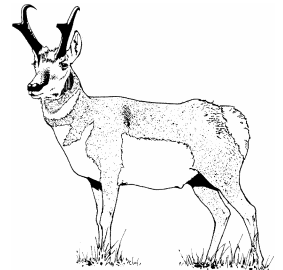

What bird starts with T? _____

What mammal starts with P?

What amphibian starts with B?

What reptile starts with C?

What mammal starts with C? _____

Africa/ Asia

Find and draw a mammal and a bird from Africa:

South America/ Australia

Match the animal with its group:

roseate spoonbill

mammal

guanaco

yellow-footed tortoise

hyacinth macaw

tapir

carpet python

bird

tammar wallaby

emu

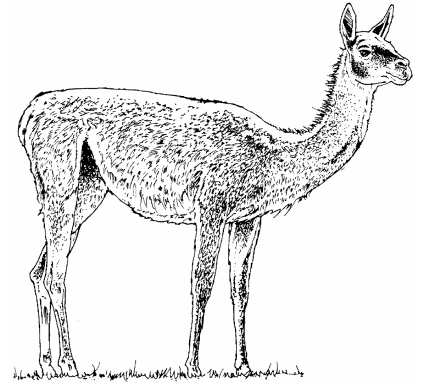

Gould's monitor

kea

tayra

rhinoceros iguana

reptile

Orangutans and Chimpanzees

Circle the answer:

Orangutans and chimpanzees are _____.

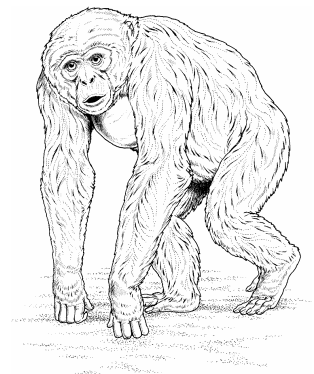

birds mammals fish reptiles amphibians

I know this because they are covered with _____.

feathers hair scales wet scales slimy scales

and they feed their babies _____.

worms milk bugs seeds

REVIEW

What do all reptiles have as covering? _____

Name the two ways that reptiles are born.

What was your favorite reptile at the Zoo? _____

What do all fish have as covering?

Name the two ways that fish are born.

What was your favorite fish at the Zoo? _____

What do all amphibians have as covering? _____

How are all amphibians born? _____

What was your favorite amphibian at the Zoo? _____

What do all birds have as covering? _____

How are all birds born? _____

What was your favorite bird at the Zoo? _____

What do all mammals have as covering? _____

How are all mammals born? _____

What was your favorite mammal at the Zoo? _____